Jane's lodge is a modern and comfortable, purpose built, wood clad lodge in Cononley. Situated on a small farm, it is both private and secluded, yet has all the amenities you might expect from luxury accommodation. There is a small but fully equipped kitchen, a very modern fully tiled toilet and shower room, complete with heated towel rail and electric toothbrush charger, a comfortable double bedroom and a large and spacious lounge complete with French windows onto the patio.

Every room (except the bathroom) has floor to ceiling windows, the lounge being triple aspect, to take advantage of the lovely views.

Jane's Lodge has its own network and there is Wi-Fi throughout the building, along with several areas that would double up as office space. The FreeSat TV also has Netflix and Amazon Prime, there is a Bluetooth speaker, as well as a selection of books and jigsaws for some downtime.

From September, the lounge will also feature a lovely, shiny red woodburner. Already well heated and insulated, this will add a cosy touch to those cooler Autumn and Winter nights. All logs and kindling are provided, so you don't have to worry about sourcing anything.

There will be a small welcome pack on arrival with fresh ground and instant coffee, teabags, sugar, biscuits and milk of your choice. All bedding, towels and other household essentials are also provided.
