

Title:	FDQ Sustainability in the Food Industry
Learner outcomes	Assessment Criteria
The learner will:	The learner can:
1. Understand the term sustainability in context of the Food Industry	1.1 Explain the concept of sustainability within the Food Industry 1.2 Outline the key factors that contribute towards sustainability within the food supply chain 1.3 Describe the evolution of the food chain and how its development has led to sustainability challenges 1.4 Demonstrate knowledge of key sustainable goals
2. Understand the requirements for a holistic approach to sustainability	2.1 Define the complexities of the food system and how stages are interlinked 2.2 Outline the consequences of isolated decisions without a broader viewpoint on sustainable actions 2.3 Understand the contribution of consumer driven behaviours
3. Develop knowledge on the UK's Sustainability Goals	3.1 Understand how the food industry contributes towards use of key resources 3.2 Explain the DEFRA Food Industry Sustainability Strategy (FISS) key points 3.3 Identify the requirements in corporate social responsibility 3.4 Define the priorities for environmental, social and economic aspects of the strategy 3.5 Describe the FISS key performance indicators
4. Form an understanding of Legislation and targets to reduce climate change and improve sustainability	4.1 Describe the key elements of the Environment Act 4.2 Define the key targets within the food industry related to the Courtauld Commitment 2030 4.3 Outline the main points of the UK Sustainability Disclosure Standards
5. Learn how to develop a plan to contribute towards sustainability goals	5.1 Describe the key factors that contribute towards an achievable sustainability target 5.2 Identify how the key factors are managed within a business

	5.3 Define KPI's that can be used to measure goals
Additional information about the module
Module purpose and aim(s)	This training supports supervisors and managers in the food industry, particularly those involved in decision making, corporate social responsibility or technical functions. It is also ideal for those wishing to expand on their existing knowledge and understanding of sustainability, legislation and governmental targets. The aim is to create a learning platform to understand sustainability within a food context be able to work towards appropriate goals and understand industry within the wider supply chain network, improving corporate social responsibility.
Test requirements	This is designed to assess the underpinning knowledge and understanding of learners in the workplace context for sustainable production, practices and supply chains within the food industry. The learner must demonstrate their knowledge and understanding to meet the assessment criteria. The course includes a number of practical exercises helping the delegate to consolidate key aspects of the training. There is a multiple-choice test at the close of the course.